Dear friends,

Sorry, this will have to suffice for a Christmas card this year. Unfortunately, I had a stroke on Tuesday, 19th March.

I am now in a nursing home making slow progress, but at least my right arm has shown improvement. I can feed myself and carry out many other tasks.

I have now started to walk again (with the assistance of a Physio) using my problem right foot.

David, my Chinese masseur, has been a tower of strength massaging me three times a week and Matthew, my Physiotherapist, is excellent. Between the two of them I have made it this far with a huge amount of frustration and embarrassment on the way.

I am unable to write yet, hence this printed letter. I am blessed with many good friends and have many visits from them which eases the boredom I feel.

I wish you all a very merry Christmas and a happy New Year,

Love,

Peter

ps. All correspondence to my home address please.
